Description

- Application: Tensioning aid for wire ropes and cables in greenhouse systems
- Material: Galvanized steel for excellent strength and corrosion resistance
- Function: Ensures secure tightening of wires and ropes
- Highlight: Suitable for both manual use and tensioning devices

The Spannfrosch, also known as a Wire Tension Clamp, is a dependable tool for tensioning cables and wire ropes in greenhouses. It offers secure fastening and can be operated manually or with a dedicated tensioning tool.

Its robust galvanized steel build ensures both long-term durability and corrosion resistance—ideal for continuous use in professional installations.
